OAKDALE, Pa. — (December 10, 2018) — TIGG announced that Doug Conley has been named their new Product Line Manager, effective immediately.

Doug will be leading growth, strategic planning, and business revenue efforts for TIGG's line of the liquid phase and vapor phase granular activated carbon (GAC) adsorption systems, equipment, and applications using activated carbon and other media.

Doug previously worked as a Sales Manager for Jacobi Carbons where he was responsible for business and market development. Prior to Jacobi Carbons, Doug held roles of increasing responsibilities for Calgon Carbon Corporation in sales, marketing, and business development. Doug obtained both his MBA from Robert Morris University as well as a bachelor's degree in marketing.

About TIGG, LLC
